

The Humble ADDRESS of the House of Commons to the QUEEN.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament Assembled, out of a deep Sense of the repeated Instances of Your Majesty's Unparallell'd Goodness, beg Leave to Return our most hearty Thanks for Your most Gracious Answer to our late Humble Address, and for Your effectual Care in Suppressing those Rebellious Tumults which were set on Foot and fomented by Papists, Nonjurors, and other Enemies to Your Majesty's Title and Government, in Defiance of the just Prosecution of the Commons against Dr. Henry Sacheverell.

And We must humbly beseech Your Majesty to believe, that as this Prosecution proceeded only from the indispensable Obligation which We, Your Faithful Commons, looked upon Our selves to lye under, not to sit still and patiently see the Justice of the late Happy Revolution, and the Glory of Our late Royal Deliverer reflected upon, Your Majesty's undoubted Title struck at, Your Administration, by which so many Blessings are derived upon Us, endeavoured to be rendred Odious to the People, and represented as Destructive of the Church and Constitution, the present Establishment and Protestant Succession Undermin'd, the Resolutions of Parliament treated with Contempt, the Governors of the Church, and Your Majesty as Supreme, Aspersed and Vilified, the Toleration exposed as Wicked, and Sedition insolently invading the Pulpit.

So the Maintenance of Your Majesty's Right, the Safety of Your Person the Quiet of Your Government, the Continuance of Our Happiness under Your Excellent Administration, the Succession in the Protestant Line, the Support and Honour of the Church of England as Established by Law, with that Toleration which is by Act of Parliament allowed to Protestant Dissenters, shall be our Constant Care and Concern: And We will upon all Occasions venture all that is Dear to Us in Defence of such inestimable Blessings.

B*Y Vertue of an Order of the House of Commons, I do appoint Jacob Tonson, Timothy Goodwin, Joshua Lintott, and John Pemberton to Print these Votes; And that no other Person presume to Print the same.*

Ri^d. ONSLOW, Speaker.
